

PROFESSOR BOŽIDAR P. M. ĆURČIĆ: CURRICULUM VITAE

Born 3 July 1946, Belgrade. Enrollment in biology, Faculty of Science, University of Belgrade in 1965; graduation in 1969. Graduate Assistant, Institute of Zoology, Faculty of Biology, University of Belgrade from 1970, Assistant Professor from 1976, Associate Professor from 1981, Full Professor from 1988, PhD degree in 1976. Director, Institute of Zoology (from 1993) and Head, Department of Animal Development (2000-). President, Trade Union, Faculty of Biology; Vice-President, Academic Council, Faculty of Biology (1979-1983), President of the Council (1983-1985), Vice-Dean (1985-1989); President, Executive Council of the Faculty (1998-2002); member, Council on Biology and Genetics, Serbian Ministry of Science and Technology; expert advisor, Federal Ministry of Development, Science, and Environment; President, Council on Biological Sciences, University of Belgrade. Fellow, Royal Entomological Society, IUS, British Arachnological Society, Council of the European Association of Arachnologists, Japanese Arachnological Society, Swiss Zoological Society, CIESM, Russian Arachnological Society, French Arachnological Society, IAS, Chinese Arachnological Society, American Arachnological Society. Member, Committee on Karst and Speleology, SASA; member, Executive Council, Serbian Biological Society (six terms). President, Entomological Society of Serbia. Editor-in-chief, Archives of Biological Sciences and Monographs, Institute of Zoology; member, Editorial Board, Acta Zoologica Bulgarica, Journal of Science (Sofia), and Acta Entomologica Serbica. Foreign member, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences; Chairman, MAB Committee, Commission of Serbia for UNESCO. Visiting expert or professor, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Bucharest, Sofia, Skopje, Zagreb, Sarajevo, Ljubljana, Athens, Salonika, Rome, Florence, Pisa, Moulis, London, Vienna, Paris, Geneva, Toulouse, Frankfurt, Cambridge, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Miami, Washington, Panama City, Rochester, Budapest, Brussels. Director, Center for Biospeleology, Faculty of Biology; President, NGO Center for Biospeleology of SE Europe. Leader of projects sponsored by the Serbian Ministry of Science and Technology; Federal Secretariat for Development, Environment, and Science; Macedonian Ministries of Culture and Ecology; Bulgarian Academy of Sciences; Romanian Academy of Sciences; Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts; SASA; Natural History Museums in Skopje, Vienna, and Brighton; and UNESCO.

Author or co-author of 350 scientific papers, 16 monographs, and 28 textbooks; editor of 20 monographs.